

Pamela J.Savoy Fulton

October 2, 1954 - May 27, 2014

PAMELA JOYCE SAVOY-FULTON (affectionately called "Toots"), daughter of Donald Savoy, Sr. and the late Viola Mae Miller Savoy, was born on October 2, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a brief illness she suddenly departed this life on May 29, 2014.

She received her education in the Baltimore school system graduating in 1972 from Frederick Douglass High School. She then furthered her education at Baltimore City Community College. Upon completion of her education she was employed at the Social Security Administration. After 28 years of service, she retired from Journal of Commerce in Baltimore, Maryland. She was an active member of St Martin Church of Christ working with the Mending Nets Women's Group.

Toots married the love of her life, James Horace Fulton. With this marriage came nine children. They raised three nieces as their own, Shaquria Mason, Marquetia Watters, and Tykierra Marshall.

Toots made numerous friends wherever she went and will be missed by everyone who knew her.

She was fun to be around, loveable, jolly. Toots enjoyed the casinos. She was a person you could talk to and was honest with her conversations. She was very devoted to her family and would do anything for her family and friends.

She could get the party started with her humor.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, James Fulton; her father, Donald Savoy, Sr.; seven stepsons, Andre (Pamela), Kenneth (Loretta), Kevin (Cheryl), Ronnell (Wilma), Larry (Juanita), Lamont (Kizzy) and Donnell Fulton; two stepdaughters, Phyllis (Louis) Kiah and Joann Fulton; four sisters, Deborah B. Holton, Betty Wyatt, Edwina Blackwell, and Catherine Brown; two brothers, Donald (Sylvia) Savoy, Jr. and Anthony Savoy; three brothers-in-law, Rev. Charles Stevenson, Anthony (Daphne) Stevenson, and Ronald Stevenson; two sisters-in-law, Carolyn Buckner and Sondra Gamble; three special great-nieces, Shaquria Mason, Marquetia Watters, and Tykierra Marshall; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
