PAMELA AUDREY HALL was born on March 31st, 1956 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Dr. William Martin Hall and Mildred DaSilva Hall. She transitioned on January 21st, 2014 in Baltimore, MD. Pam grew up the middle child of five in Baltimore, MD., graduating from Western High School in 1974. She continued her education at Howard University, where she graduated cum laude with a B.A. in Communications in 1978. She began her broadcasting career while in college, working on the campus radio station, WHBC, and as the assistant music director at WHUR-FM. After College, Pam left Washington D.C. and moved to New York to work with Hal Jackson and as the Music Director at WBLS-FM (Inner City Broadcasting), and later worked with Frankie Crocker. After leaving WBLS, Pam was a Promotions Representative for Prelude Records, later becoming a regional promotions manager and A&R representative at Arista Records in New York. She returned to Baltimore in 1984 and worked in cable TV and as a legislative aide before becoming an independent record rep in the Mid-Atlantic region. In 1993, she returned to WHUR as the Music Director, later becoming the interim Program Director. She held a few positions in the financial industry beginning in 1997, working for T. Rowe Price and Morgan Stanley Dean Witter. In 2000, Pam became Program Director and on-air personality for the Jazz channel, "Riff" at WorldSpace Satellite Radio Network in Washington, D.C., where she worked for the next 8 years. She also built the format and database for the WorldSpace Gospel Channel. Prior to becoming Program Director in 2011 for

Morgan State's WEAA-FM, Pam built the business plan and assembled an operational team to start a Low-Power FM Broadcast Radio station. After leaving WEAA, Pam worked diligently on her dream of launching her own radio station to broadcast contemporary Gospel through her company, Radiant Broadcasting LLC. Pam was a devoted partner of Spirit of Faith Christian Center, where she served with the media ministry team. She was a community- and family-oriented lover of God who lived a spirit-filled life. Pam was like a second mom to all of her nieces and nephews and loved hearing about and being a part of everything they were involved in. She was the rock of the Hall family: a true giver whose generosity was exhibited in an unconditional and humble manner. She was organized and an impeccable record-keeper. She enjoyed sports and played basketball, table tennis, tennis and was an avid swimmer. Pam loved to watch sports as well, whether it was cheering relatives on at their gaming events or watching the Baltimore Ravens. Her favorite sports to view and attend were football, basketball, and tennis. Pam attended live music concerts and events throughout her life and became good friends with many of the performers. Pam loved to travel. Some of the places she visited included Holland, Paris, Spain, Suriname, Morocco, India and Saint Maarten. Pam spent her summers on Martha's Vineyard as a child. As an adult, she tried to never miss a summer at the Vineyard. Pam was highly intelligent, well-read, and an avid debater who could hold her own on a myriad of subjects. She was included in Who's Who in American Colleges for academic leadership and service achievements. Pam was an announcer, music programmer, and music director, serving as a prominent member of the Music Industry for over a quarter of a century. She was named Black Radio's Music Director of the Year in 1992. She was also nominated for BILLBOARD's Music Director of the year and was credited with breaking numerous new artists into the music industry. Pam is survived by: her mother, Mildred DaSilva Hall; father, William Martin Hall, M.D.; siblings, William Martin Jr., Patricia Diane, Julie Hall Lowe, Norman Berkeley, Phillip Dorsey, and Kristy Hall Reel; aunt, Audrey Hall Coleman; uncle, Norman DaSilva; fourteen nieces and nephews, and a host of cousins.

“ Dear Dr. Hall, children and family,

I am sorry that I had never met your beloved Pam before. After attending the service on Saturday, I wish I had. Her footprints on this earth will never be washed away. She was a true child of God. My spirit and faith were renewed as I listened to the beautiful music, to the Word of God and especially the testaments on what an amazing person Pam was here on earth. I am in awe of your family's strong faith, love of God and family. I will keep you all in my prayers.

“ To the Halls: Mom, Pop, Billy Norman, Pattie, Julie and Phillip. This is Mike Smith, your long-lost brother from Johns Hopkins, letting you know that I greatly grieve the loss of our beloved sister Pam. I loved all the Halls during my wonderful time with them, as I love you all in memory today. While I grieve Pam's death. I also celebrate her life and her accomplishments. Thank you for the obituary in the Baltimore Sun. It was a joy to read and appreciate. May her spirit of love and kindness be a consolation to you. May the return of long-lost friends, even if electronically, brighten your days.

“ I have always been grateful that the Lord brought Pamela into my life. She was a beautiful light that walked this earth. I am a better person from knowing her and I am most grateful for that, as well. Mrs. Hall please know that Pamela was much loved and highly respected. She had great clarity of mind and her force of intellect was an integral part of her being. She had a remarkably wide circle of talented friends. It was Pamela who introduced me to the advantages of a vegetarian diet long before it was fashionable. She had a delicate gracefulness about her and walked the narrow path of integrity and righteousness. Her love of God superseded everything - even her love of music. My heart is heavy ... I pray that God will cradle the Hall family in His hands during this time of immense sorrow. May you all find strength and faith in knowing that she is now at peace and smiles down upon us from above. Great joy shook the streets of heaven when Pam Hall walked through the golden gates to rest by God's feet. Mr. and Mrs. Hall you both raised an extraordinary daughter who shared her wisdom and compassion unconditionally with all who knew her. I will continue to always treasure her friendship.

*Peace and Blessings,

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death can be hard to cope with. Fortunately, God promises to rid the earth of all sickness, suffering, and death (Revelation 21:4). May this bring you comfort in this time of need.

“ I was a classmate of Pam's at Howard University in 1974 and we both worked at the campus radio station, WHBC. When I first met her I was struck by her beauty, her smile and her passion for music, particularly jazz, which thanks to her, I gained a great appreciation for. She had a real presence about her and whenever "Fanta" -- her DJ name -- walked into our radio station, heads would turn, followed by big smiles; she had that charisma, an inner glow, a radiant spirit. It saddened me greatly to hear of her passing.

There are no goodbyes. Wherever you are, she will always be in your heart because all that we love deeply becomes a part of us.

My thoughts and prayers are with you,

Sincerely, Sushant Sagar

“ To the Hall Family,
I wanted to write to give you my condolences on losing your loved one in death. Death is such a terribly painful thing. But God loves us and does not want us going through this. He has set out a hope for us in his word the bible. It says at Revelation 21:4 that 'there will be no more death, sickness or pain'. What a wonderful hope. The bible also tells us that God cannot lie. So we can look forward to the time when God will bring about his promises. Well I do hope these scriptures will bring so comfort to you. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.
