

Pamela Lee Holloway

April 12, 1964 - May 26, 2010

Pamela Lee Holloway, fondly known as Pam, was born April 12, 1964, in Richmond, Virginia to Clara Mae Holloway and the late Andrew B. Johnson. She departed this life on May 26, 2010 after a brief illness.

Pam graduated from Huguenot High School in 1983 and began working at Henrico Doctor's Hospital, moving on to various jobs throughout her career, until her illness no longer permitted her to work. She joined Triumphant Baptist Church at an early age and later moved her membership to St. Paul's Baptist Church.

She leaves to cherish her memories always and forever, her mother Clara Mae Holloway, two daughters, Shantae Renee` Holloway (Tay) and Jazmine Denise Holloway (Jazz) of Richmond, VA; one sister, Tracey Antoinette Holloway; two brothers, Robert Darnell Holloway and Rodney Dion Holloway, all of Richmond, VA.; a devoted grandmother, Sarah Williams of Richmond, VA., six nieces, two nephews, three great nieces and two great nephews, all of Richmond, VA., and a host of very caring, loving and devoted circle of aunts, uncles, cousins and one devoted friend, Thomas Rollins of Richmond, VA. Pam will be surely missed.
