“ Even in childhood, Pam had the biggest, warmest, most genuine smile a person could ever receive. In all the years since, no matter the time, the tribulations, the triumphs or even the troubles, Pam made me feel beautiful, loved and blessed. Her smile made everything okay. No matter what you're going through. No matter what she may have been going through. Her smile ALWAYS said, "I'm happy to see you!" And for that reason alone, I was always happy to see her. The light from her human life may have been extinguished, but the brilliance of her spirit will NEVER fade.

Pamela, you are loved and missed.
