“ *Dear Johnson family and friends,
I first met Pam when she was working in Calvert County for the Department of Social Services. I found her to be a caring and hard working person for her clients and professionally excellent. I was re-introduced to her as she sought her education and work in ministry and her attendance to the Baltimore Washington Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church. It was wonderful to know her and feel the warmth of her presence. May God bless you in your grief and loss. Marcia Monnett*

“ I will never forget the great times Pam and I shared as neighbors growing up in Edmondson Village. Pam and the family were always so kind and friendly. I can remember trips to the "country", church services and visits to her grandparents' home. Catching the No. 23 bus, with our books piled high to our beloved Western High School, is a memory I will always cherish. I am so grateful I had a chance to give Pam a hug at our recent high school reunion a few months ago. Her friendship will always have a place in my heart.

Our heartfelt condolences to Pat and the family. May God give you peace and comfort at this time.

*Sincerely,
Irvina Mallory and Family*

“ Minister Pam is/was a beautiful soul. Helpful to all. Words of encouragement to other people and available to whoever wished to talk. Available to the kids at the summer camps, to the seniors at church, willing to minister when asked. I will miss her and our rides to drop her off after Sunday service. Heaven has a new member of the heavenly choir. Rest on sweet girl.
