

Pamela Epps McDonald

August 27, 1957 - February 11, 2012

Pamela Epps McDonald was born on August 27, 1957 to the Gomelia and Helen Epps. She departed this life suddenly on February 11, 2012.

She received her education and graduated from the Baltimore City Public School System. She worked for the City of Baltimore where she was a crossing Guard.

Pam, as she was known to all who knew her, was a “Supermom” and friend. She loved caring for her children. Her kids were her life. Giving so much of herself she was always there for everyone willing to give a helping hand. She also loved sewing, cooking, singing and traveling. When anyone came in contact with her you could feel her warm heart through her handshake or hug. Pam loved everyone and will truly be missed.

In 1973 she met and married Linwood Pittman, Sr. and out of this union one son was born: Linwood Pittman, Jr. This husband and son preceded her in death. She later met Jeffrey Billings-El and out of the relationship two sons were born: Jamal and Malik Billings-El. In caring and loving her children she later met and fell in love with Sheldon McDonald whom she married. Out of this union no children were born. She was a devoted wife and mother.

She leaves to mourn: two sons, Jamal and Malik Billing-El; husband, Sheldon

McDonald; two brothers and two sisters-in-law, Nathaniel Epps and Misti Epps, Cordell Epps and Tamara Epps; nieces and nephews, Shion, Sincere, Shavari, Kamrin and Cordell Epps; (one brother, Barry Epps preceded her in death); two godsons, Daniel Allen and Lamont Bell; one daughter, Sherry Maxwell; two granddaughters, Breanne and Makalah; four good friends, Joyce, Margie, Carla and Sonja; special cousin, Diane Leary; two special friends of the sons, De'Nishea Douglass and Chrissy Gettis; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. May the memories shared be a source of comfort. Please find comfort in knowing "the God of all comfort" promises to reunite as with our loved ones by means of the resurrection hope in the Bible at Acts 24:15.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time. Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.
