

Pamela Pittman

March 25, 1961 - September 28, 2025

PAMELA PITTMAN was born and raised in Baltimore to the late Junious Carnell Armstrong and Carrie Peterson. She married her childhood sweetheart Tyrone Pittman and together they are parents to three sons, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Pam attended the University of Maryland Baltimore County and Strayer Business College. She would go on to have a long proud career with the federal government starting with the Office of Personnel Management and later with the Social Security Administration where she would stay until she retired. During her career, Pam received multiple Individual and Team Commissioner Citations, Associate Commissioner Citations and a host of other awards for her participation in agency initiatives. Her absolute joy was spending time with family, playing slot machines, shopping and going out to dinner or cooking for and with her children.

Pam is survived by her lifelong friend and ex-husband, Tyrone Pittman Sr. and their sons, Tyrone “Ty” Pittman Jr. (Cherie), Junious “Jayy” Pittman (Marquia) and Michael “Mike” Armstrong, grandchildren, Tiffani, TyJae Michelle, Gabriel, Shawn, Shane, Kaya and Kylie Jae; and great-grandchildren, Saiyr Jaede and Truz Amir. In addition, Pam will be missed by Tiffany Vines, as well as a host of others in her SSA and Woodmoor communities she viewed as extended family who affectionately referred to her as “Mama Pittman”.

Pam is also survived by her siblings, Bernard (Diane), Ronda, (Marshall), Kathy, Debra, and Terry (Rosemary), and a host of cousins, nephews and nieces. She was preceded in death by her parents as well as her lifelong best friend, Cheryl Harris; godson, Nelson Gaines; and her brothers, Junious and Stevie
