“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort be with your family. We can find comfort during these times by focusing on the God's promises for the future. Isaiah 33:24 says there will be a time when “no resident will say I am sick.” Also Revelation 21:4 says “death will be no more.”

Allen - April 20, 2013 at 06:23 AM

“ To the Family: I would like to express my sincere condolence for the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort, during this time of mourning, In persistent prayers as. "The peace of God that excels all though will guard and your mental powers.' (Philippians 4:7) I certainly hope that comfort you find in the scriptures will make a diffenence at this dfficult time.

Deborah Gipson - April 09, 2013 at 12:02 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
