“ MY CHANGE OF ADDRESS Dear Family and Friends, Please be advised that I have moved. I received my the Clhief Architect, and he informed me that my new home was complete. I knew my mansion required some finishing touches and that the Chief Carpenter,Jesus,had to inspect it and give the final approval. On the day of January 10,2010, he let me know that my mansion had been completed and go and move in so go and change your address. My new nome is finished and what a sight to behold. It is located in an exclusive estate behind a beautiful pearly gate. Of course, you know the streets are paved with gold and everyday is Sunday. Fruit trees grace my garden here, and I can walk and talk with my Master without a worry or care. Mdy new home is much better than any other place I have ever lived. There is a peace here along with joy, and happiness. There is no pain, no strife or discomfort, only sweet serenity. I dine at the Master's bountiful table and listen to a heavenly choir. Best of all my heavenly Father is in all his Glory! And I have my own white robe and my wings. I could go on and on about my new home,but I am going to pray that you get to move here yourself one day. Before I fo, let me give you my new address: Pamela Sharon JohnsonOne Heaven's Way God's Town, Heaven 11111 Remember I do not have a telephone, but you can always call on the LORD. If you do not kinow his number, just read the bible, it is listed on every page. Hope to see you soon, Love,

“ I hope I am sending my condolences to the right "Pam". When I heard the news I just could not believe that my "Pam" the cake lady had up and moved to heaven. We met at EDSA ten years ago because my creature feature is now ten. I will continue to keep you all in my prayers Lamont. Just remember that I am only a call away. Just take one day at a time and remember she is at peace waiting to meet you again.##imported-begin##Ashia Johnson##imported-end##

“ Aunt Marion, Uncle Bernard and the rest of the family, I wanted to offer my sincerest condolenses. Pam was always a cousin far away in distance, but never from my heart. I'm just sorry we never got to spend a lot of time together, but when we did--we had fun. Take care and keep in touch. I love you guys. Barbara##imported-begin##Barbara Conyers-Cook##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Even though I didn't know her personally, I mourn her loss, because every life is so precious; a wonderful gift from our loving creator. he never desired sickness, violence, or death for us, and he has promised to do away with all of these conditions of sorrow in the very near future. He views death as our worst enemy, and he promises at 1st Corinthians 15:26, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Soon peace will prevail worldwide on this earth; not through the efforts of men to whom no salvation belong, but only through God's heavenly kingdom, which we pray for in the Lord's prayer. One day we will be able to throw away our pills, wheelchairs, eye glasses, and canes. There will be no need for nurses, doctors, hospitals, policemen, or cemeteries, because Jehovah God will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. As for the dead, every detail of each one who has died are etched in his magnificent memory. Indeed, the dead will one day come out of the memorial tombs, because they will hear Jesus's voice and come back to life. John 5:28,29 May you be comforted by this wonderful hope as well as your cherished memories of happier days spent with Pamela. Remember, that "All things are possible with God. When he says our loved ones will rise we can put faith in that promise. One day Pamela will live again in peaceful and secure conditions. May that thought always bring you comfort until it becomes a reality.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
