

Pamela Sharon Johnson

November 6, 1955 - January 10, 2010

PAMELA SHARON JOHNSON, daughter of Bernard Lawrence Johnson Sr. and Marion Elizabeth Dunn, was born on November 6, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 10, 2010. Pamela's love for baking got her affectionately known as "Miss Pam, The Cake Lady." Her talent for creating beautiful cakes for any occasion became legendary in every corner of Baltimore. She treated her clients as if they were part of her family. Pam was an active, vital woman who enjoyed spending time with her family and countless friends. She was a sweet, caring, gentle soul with more fire and sass than a woman half her age, also also known as "Aunt Pam," she was very giving to herself always willing to help someone in need. Her beauty was exceptional, luminous and totally magnetic. She leaves to mourn: her father, Bernard L. Johnson Sr.; her mother, Marion E. Johnson; four children, Lamonte, Tomeko, Donnyel and Sharon; three grandchildren, TyJuan, TyShiya and Nole; two sisters, Angela and Amelia; brother, Bernard Jr.; and a loving host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ *Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never a part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God by means of prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Pamela Johnson. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.##imported-begin##Peggy Jones- Land##imported-end##

“ Many people ask why do we die. The real/true answer is found in the Bible. We die because of Adam and Eve sinning in the Garden of Eden. That's what has been passed down to us all. However we are not without hope. John 5:28-29 speaks of a resurrection right here on earth. The Bible also speaks about a time when death, mourning, pain and outcry will be no more. Read Revelation 21:3-4. We also have the hope of seeing our loved ones here on earth again. John 5:28-29. Not in the condition that the earth is in now, no on a paradise earth. Jesus gave that hope in the model prayer at Matthew 6:9-10. Yes, God's Kingdom Government is what we pray for. Take comfort in the scriptures.##imported-begin##T Curtis##imported-end##
