

Panseal Carmon

May 23, 1932 - October 14, 2013

PANSEAL M. CARMON, daughter of the late Hubert and Bertha Newborn, was born on May 23, 1932 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was called home on October 14, 2013.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked at Misty Harbor Clothing Manufacturers from which she retired in 1985. Then she became a home care provider for twenty years. She was a trusting child of God and always asked, "Lord, Remember Me." She was a faithful member of First Apostolic Faith Church.

She met and married James H. Carmon, who preceded her in death. Out of this union they had three sons, James A. Carmon and two sons who preceded her in death, Gregory Newborn and Jeffrey Carmon. She was known as "Panny" to all and "Ms. Pat" to others. She was a collector of many things. Dolls were her passion. She was a member of The Order of The Eastern Star.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her son, James Newborn; two grandsons, James Carmon Jr., Michael Johnson-Carmon; two great-grandchildren, James III, Mikayla; two daughters-in-law, Pamala Carmon, Angela Jones-Carmon; sister, Dolores Best;

brother, Herbert Newborn (Henry Newborn preceded her in death);
sister-in-law, Blanche Carmon; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends including a special group of friends and neighbors from the 1600 block of Broadway.

“ To the family of Panseal Carmon:

*Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ *When I got the call my panny had gone home to the king. I was sad and tearful and then I thought about how Panny would want me to be. I will not weep cause you are gone to see the king. I will weep because I'm going to miss you. I'm going to miss you so much. Panny I love you so much and I know god have a beautiful angel by his side..Love you Panny . “ *Deepest condolences to the family. Ms. Pat was very special to me. She was my road partner to and from New Jersey. I loved chatting with her and trying to catch all the nuggets of wisdom and Jesus joy she shared so freely. She taught me about the "goodie shops." She had a huge heart with love for everyone. She was a blessing and she will truly be missed. I'm praying the Lord's strength and comfort for all of the family and for everyone who has been touched by Ms. Pat's life and her passing. “ To the family ... Please accept my sincerest condolences; I am so sorry to learn of the passing of your dear loved one. God's Word, the Bible promises us at Revelation 21;4 -"And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Your memory of the good times will definitely help to get you through this time of stress and challenge.

“ Mrs Pat, you will be always remembered in my life. The wisdom you shared and your compassion for everyone. Going to the "junk shop" or Scratch and Dent will never be the same. I'll miss walking in and seeing hundreds of dolls. You always had a kind word to speak to everyone. You always had time to talk and always had time to pray. I am so grateful that you blessed my life and I pray that you rest in the arms of The Lord.
