

Pansy A. Jones

August 11, 1939 - September 8, 2006

Pansy Alese Jones, also known by most as Ann, was born on August 11, 1939, to the late Myrtle Guy and Pastor Guy, Sr., in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. She was the youngest of ten children, and had seven brothers and two sisters; six of which preceded her death. The Lord called Pansy home suddenly on September 8, 2006, at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Pansy received her education through the Pittsylvania County, Virginia school system. She confessed Christ at an early age and attended Triumph Baptist Church in Chatham, Virginia. Pansy married the late Bobbie Jones in January, 1957. They relocated to Baltimore, Maryland where they spent most of their lives. They had three children, of which their son, Donald R. Jones preceded Pansy's death. Pansy was a very loving and kind-hearted person. She was greatly loved by her family and friends. Her passing leaves an open space in the family that cannot be closed, and the memory of her will be forever kept by: her two daughters, Janice Jones Farmer and Vanessa Jones Johnson; grandchildren, Genera, Bobby Jr., and Antonio "Man;" great-grandchildren, Jalen, Corey, Diamond and Kavon; two brothers, Curtis Guy and Fitz Guy of Chatham, Virginia; one sister, Nettie Guy of Chatham, Virginia; two sons-in-law, Willie Farmer and Bobby Johnson, Sr.; soon to be grandson-in-law, Ned Robinson; and a host of family and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family, Know that God's grace is sufficient for thee in this time of despair. I know there's nothing that will compare to Mama but may the prayers and love of those left behind comfort you, as God's grace keeps you.##imported-begin##Beverly Jones(Punkin)##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. As the days and the years go by, please be comforted by Almighty God words which says at Isaiah 25:8, 'He will swallow up death forever...for Jehovah himself has spoken it.' Yes, Almighty God will eradicate death forever and will make it possible for our dead love ones to be resurrected uder peaceful conditions. (Acts 24:15). Please be comforted by these encouraging words.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
