“ I worked with Parris for over 30 years at the Social Security Administration and he always, and I mean always, treated me with the utmost dignity and respect! Parris always looked you in the eye when talking to you and gave you his undivided attention. What's more is that he always flashed the coolest smile, had the smoothest demeanor, the smoothest "bop" and gave you one of those handshakes that only a "Real Brotha" would know about!! That was my man Parris!! I can also tell you that in all of our conversations over the years, it was very evident that he Loved God, Love his Wife and loved his kids.

In other words, Parris was a really good man, plain and simple, and his presence and his spirit will truly be missed!!

I pray the his family will cherish the many memories that you have of your loved one and that those memories will sustain you until you see him again!!

May God Bless You & May His Peace Continually Be With You!!

“ KINGS Amongst KINGS

*Now I don't know if you've ever noticed
But there are KINGS that walk this earth
They aren't chosen or manufactured;
They have earned that right at birth*

*Some were never told their destiny
Or only thought it was an illusive dream
But those who recognize that purpose
Are so inclined to intervene*

*Their presence unmistakable
They command your interest upon entering a room
He makes you want to stand behind him
Even in times of impending doom*

*This impressive man of stature
Inspires everyone he can
There's nothing that can move you more
Than the soul of this celebrated humble and anointed man of God*

*There is something so regal, special and genuine about him
Something so indescribably beautiful and keen
A courageous glide, beautiful smile & encouraging words towards everyone...
A most amazing and thoughtful being*

*There are certainly KINGS that walk this earth
And we have been blessed to meet a few
Parris is one such a man
And that is something that death can't undo*

*In Loving Memory of a True King...
Parris*

A – Anointed
R – Royalty
