

Patience Farrell

October 12, 1962 - December 23, 2017

PATIENCE FARRELL was born on October 12, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Charles Farrell and Evelyn Farrell of Baltimore, Maryland.

Pat was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System of Maryland. She was employed by the Allied Barton Security as a security officer for over ten years.

At an early age Pat confirmed her faith in God and joined Union Baptist Church. In later years after accepting Christ in her life, she joined New Trinity of the National Congregational Churches of America. In 2012 Pat moved her membership to Faithful Church of God under the leadership of her brother Anthony Farrell. She was a faithful member who would step in to help around the church and loved to sing with the church.

Pat would always help the neighbors with a big smile on her face. Pat was the heart of the neighborhood; everyone loved Pat. In the winter Pat would help shovel snow and dig the neighbors out after a heavy snow fall, after cleaning her mother's front. All the neighbors will truly miss her, but God knows best.

Pat was a loving and friendly person that did not mind helping you if she saw that you needed some help.

The morning of December 24, 2017, God called Pat home. She is preceded in death by her brother, Alvin Farrell of Baltimore, Maryland and her sister, Celia Mae "Carolyn" Yarborough of Raleigh, North Carolina; and her father, Charles Farrell of Baltimore, Maryland. She also leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Evelyn Farrell of Baltimore, Maryland; two brothers, Edward and Anthony Farrell of Baltimore, Maryland; one sister-in-law, Sandra Farrell of Baltimore, Maryland; two nephews, one uncle, three aunts, a host of cousins, many friends and a host of neighbors.

“ May God grant you strength and endurance during your moment of bereavement. The Farrells were our neighbor for many of years. We experience growing up together and having fun doing the things children do. I'm so sadden to learn of the passing of Pat. I will always remember Pat as one of my childhood friends. I pray for your family and hold to God's unchanging hand.
