“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Dear family, I am so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one in death. It is truly a heartbreaking thing to go through, and so hard to come to terms with. To the father I want to say I understand your pain, because I lost my son too at a very young age. But stay strong, trust in Jehovah God with all your heart, and remember that he is not the blame for the tragic things that happen, and one day soon he is going to wipe out every tear from our eyes with his promise that death will be no more. Please read Pev 21:3-5 for comfort. To her boys this is especially hard on them, because I know that at such a young age they just don't understand why their mother is gone. Family please stay close to them, shower with them love and plenty of hugs and kisses, and always let them know that our God is a loving God, and one day they will see their mother again. To the sister I am so sorry for your loss. My sister and I are so close as well, so I can imagine how hard this is for you. Remember when Jesus was on earth, he ressurected many back to life including a 12-year old little girl. Please read Mark 5:38-43 about this. Think about having a bible study. I would like to help you to see the wonderful blessings Jehovah God has in store for those who love them. Believe me if you do this you will learn so much about the true hope for the dead, and how very close we really are to the wonderful ressurection that Jesus will perform which will bring millions back to life. Please contact me on my E-mail, and stay strong family, trust in Jehovah with all your hearts, because soon all of this tragedy and hurt we go through will be a thing of the past. Take care.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
