

Patricia Ann Adams

June 9, 1952 - December 21, 2024

Patricia Ann Adams, daughter of the late Wryant Holloway and late Jannie Mae McCullough, was born on June 9, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. On December 21, 2024 after a brief illness, the sweet spirit of our dear loved one went to join our Heavenly Father in the land that is free from sorrow, sickness and pain. Even though everything possible was done to comfort her during her illness, we have accepted that it was God's will that she join Him.

Patricia affectionately known as "Chee" received her education at Edmondson Senior High School in Baltimore, MD and graduated in 1971. In 1973, Chee and the late Donald Mack Adams gave birth to one son Donald Arvay Adams whom she adored and was extremely proud of. Chee found great joy in being a mother and was very selfless and resilient. She began her career in office management where she held numerous positions as a clerk, cashier and receptionist.

Chee accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior early in life. She demonstrated the love of Christ through acts of kindness and giving. Known for her generosity Chee enjoyed blessing others with gifts and money. If you complimented something she was wearing, she would literally take it off and give it to you without expecting anything in return. She would even share her food from Meals on Wheels with her neighbors. Her gift of giving to others was seen throughout her entire life.

Chee enjoyed music, movies of all kinds and found great pleasure in spending time with family and friends. She loved and cherished her nieces, nephews, great-nieces and -nephews and found joy and happiness in watching them grow.

Chee's memory will forever be etched in our hearts. Her smile and kind heart will sincerely be missed. She leaves many memories to be cherished by her sister, Adrian McKenzie (Anthony); four brothers, Norris Holloway (late Rose), Anthony McCullough (Naomi), DelCarlo McCullough (late Cassandra) and Purnell McCullough; nieces, nephews, great-nieces and -nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. She is preceded in death by two sisters, Barbara Holloway-House and Vonderlia Holloway.
