“ Pat I really love and miss you so very much, I truly wish you were still here your daughter really needs and misses you. Our family is not what it should be and Dot and Dad are with you, Dede and Pope. Sometimes I wish I was with you all as well, my heart is so very heavy right now. Love and miss you

“Hi Mom, it's coming up on 8 years since you left for glory and I know it's been a minute since I've written because I've had trouble logging on the this website, but thanks to my faithful co-worker I was once again reunited. Please know that you're always in my heart, on my mind, and in my thoughts daily. It's funny and sometimes I laugh because with all of my life experiences I seem to have become more & more like you, which is wonderful thing. Lately those experiences have made me more of a loner and unable to really trust. Although the good in it is, I have learned to defend myself respectfully of course, you would have it no other way, not taking anything off of those who for no good reason try me or take advantage of the person I'am, and you were always so worried that I couldn't do it, that's what I had you for right LOL :). Thank you for drilling into my head "not to depend on anyone but yourself", that's one of the very reason's I'm surviving.

So many things have changed and I've gone through so much tragedy and turmoil in the past few years but because of God's grace, I'm still standing. I know you were there with me all of the way guiding my steps along with the Lord. I know you're our Guardian Angel, I take a lot of comfort in knowing that. You now have two beautiful great-granddaughters Camille and Melanie, they are so adorable and have beautiful long eye lashes just like you :). I know not suprising to you at all that your sweet Lil Donald as you so lovingly called him is an awesome Man, and Father, he misses you so much and seemed to have visited your grave site hundreds of times just to feel close to you. My Devin as you used to say with a smile is working everyday for the last 3 months, praise the Lord, and is doing much better but is still a work in progress just the many of us. My daily advice to him is to keep his head up, mind the company you keep, and let your haters be your motivators, keep pushing forward.

Your son, Toussaint still misses you a lot and wishes he had done the things you told him to do in his youth LOL, but some of those lessons seem to be sticking now. He looks forward to the tribute i place in the Sun paper every year, it makes him smile and reflect on all of the beautiful memories we made. Thanks for raising us to be close and to stick together.

In closing, I thank God first for giving us you, and thank you for raising me to be upright, sincere, genuine, kind, courteous, helpful to others, especially those in need, teaching me morals and values, that has taken me a long way, sending me to the market at 13 has taught me to budget and become Bargain Betty, and lastly but more importantly showing me how to be a GOOD Mother, All of that LOVE and Lessons you taught me I've passed on to my kids and I'm getting it back from them. Devin leaves the house every morning and say's Mom I love you, have a good day, Lil Donald, calls me every other day no matter what, and Toussaint sends me cards at least once a month. All of this expemplifies the power of Love and it all started with you.

You are the reason for my success.

Until next time Mommy, I love you & miss you always :).

Lovingly Submitted,

*Your daughter,
Katrina*

“ A Message To My Sister: Pat, only through my trust and faith in God am I able to continue on with my life after the untimely loss of you. It's hard and at times I feel I will never be the same again. I sometimes feel as though I failed you in some way. Deep down I know your destiny was determined by God even before your birth but on the surface, my heart hurts and there is a void in my life. I missed you most during Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's. You have a birthday this month and will be there to place flowers on the spot where your remains lay. I do find comfort in knowing that your spirit lives on and that you are at peace and that I will someday see you again. Love Always, your sister Denise###imported-begin##Denise Bean Purnell###imported-end##

“ Pat, spring is here and I can't help but think about how much you love this time of year; the way you love flowers and plants. Time does seem to heal the hurt but only just a bit. I think of you often and guess I will always miss you. Love.###imported-begin##Denise Bean Purnell###imported-end##

“ Mom, I miss you more and more each day, sometimes I don't realize that you are actually gone until I see your picture sitting on my table. In many ways you are still alive as I remember conversations we had and good times we shared. I really miss your encouraging words and your hugs, I can't wait to see you again on that last day when Jesus returns. I'll love you always. “ To the Family of Ms. Jones - it is obvious that your loved one is truly missed each day. Please know that many of us also find it difficult to endure the pain of losing one in death. Almighty God has not forgotten us and He promises at Isaiah 25:8 to remove the sting of death, as well as the tears we shed as a result of the loss. Our hearts may be heavy at times but please be assured that God hears our cries and has much in store for the life He promised in the Holy Bible. Please feel free to contact me to learn more. With deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Mrs. Lewis##imported-end##

“ Mom, it's me again thinking about you and missing you as always. I still feel so alone because you are not physically here for me to see your smile, have talks, and to laugh & crack jokes. I miss how you used to comfort me and give me love and support especially in the difficult times in my life like now. I do have the comfort in knowing that you are here with me in spirit. It will be 2 years in October since you left us for a better place and since that day life for me has not been the same. I have come to realize that there is no one that loves me like you do. Who is there to genuinly worry about me when I'm driving home from work, going to school after work, shopping and talking on my cell phone while driving, or calling to see if I'm safe if I'm late or haven't been seen that day or to leave me a pleasant message at work during my lunchtime, saying " I called just to say hi Daughter, I hope you are enjoying your lunch". I miss having you in my corner. There is no love like a Mother's love, no one can fill your shoes. I often thank you for the person I'am, you have molded me to be the young lady that I'am. For who I'am I give all of the credit to you. Your grandchildren miss you alot too, there is not one day that goes by that they don't mention Grandma Poo-Poo. When your grandson Donald and myself walk across the stage in June you are the one we will be missing, but we know that you are there with us rejoicing. Our diplomas will be dedicated to you. Thanks for everything Mom, until the next time, I Love You. Love always, your daughter, Katrina###imported-begin##Katrina Chappelle Maynard###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hey Sis. It's been a while since I've put my thoughts about you in written form. It's almost 3 years now since you left us. A lot has changed. I still miss you and guess that will never change. I want to thank you for always being so caring. Even in death you knew how bad I was hurting and came to me in a dream to comfort me. It was only after you talked to me to let me know you were okay that I could begin to heal. You, Dad and Dee-Dee are together and I know the 3 of you are keeping steady watch over those of us left behind. I will see you again one day. Love Always...Denise##imported-begin##Denise Bean##imported-end##

“ Hey Poo, I've been thinking about you lately and wanted to let you know how much I love you and miss you. I'm sure you already know this because you are now ever present. For the longest time, I was upset because we were not given an opportunity to say goodbye to you. I felt so cheated. But in my heart, I know you knew how much you were loved. We talk about you all the time and tell funny stories of the past. I never knew that it was you who got Little Kenny hooked on scratch offs (smile). You must be so proud of everything Trina has accomplished. She is such a beautiful person and a true image of you. Earlier today, I asked you, Dad, Dee Dee, Carol and Little Neicy to welcome Damon. Please take care of Damon and let him know everything will be okay. The older I get, the more I realize how precious life is. But please know, I also look forward to the day when I will see you all again. I love you. Your sister,
Karen.##imported-begin##Karen Baxter##imported-end##

“ To the Jones Family, I am sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Death is never easy to endure, especially when it happens to those we love dearly. God's word the bible offers words of comfort and encouragement such as those found at 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 "The God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation .." bring you comfort.##imported-begin##Michele Douglas##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. However, the bible assures us at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you find comfort from the holy scriptures, family, and friends.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
