

Patricia Brown

February 21, 1946 - February 8, 2015

PATRICIA BROWN (nee: Jordan), a humble, loving, life-long caregiver was born February 21, 1946 and departed this life on February 8, 2015. Patricia was the daughter of Mattie Bell and William.

Patricia was educated at Eastern High School, and historically all girls public high school in the city of Baltimore. Patricia, eventually, focused on her family life and marriage. Her three loving daughters Pamela, Cheryl, and Gloria were the legacy produced from this union.

Along with her family responsibilities, she was a dedicated working woman. Patricia dedicated fifty years of her life mixing family and work responsibilities. Thirty- nine of those years were served at St. Joseph Medical Center. She retired in 2008.

Patricia was God's gift to her family. She encouraged reading, education, and family togetherness. She leaves to carry on her legacy: her mother, Mattie Bell Price, her daughters, Pamela D. Chaney, Cheryl Chaney, and Gloria Chaney; her siblings, Frances, Virginia, Laveren, Vanessa (Kenny), Arthur, and John; her uncle, John Black, Sr; her aunt , Lucy Haire; and her six grandchildren, Anthony, Victor, Leroy, Sophia, Chatara, and Geoffrey; and five great grandchildren along with other loving family and friends.

“ My condolences go out to the family. As you prepare to lay your loved one to rest, may you find comfort from your Bible at Psalms 34:18. “ HE” is close to the brokenhearted and crushed in spirit.” Nahum 1:7 tells us Jehovah is good, a stronghold in the day of distress. He is mindful of those seeking refuge in him

“ *To the Brown family:
I'm sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" provide you with strength to endure this difficult time. (2 Cor. 1:3)
Thanks to our Heavenly Father, Jehovah God, who sacrificed the life of His only-begotten, Jesus Christ who "gave his life as a ransom in exchange for many", we have the hope of seeing our dear loved ones again. (Matt. 20:28)
I hope you are comforted by these words.*

Michael W. - February 10, 2015 at 06:47 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
