“ Stephen, Kenny, Vernetta and Jackie, We were sorry to hear the news about the death of your mother, your friend. Healing happens slowly over weeks, months, years, and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood. Our prayers are with you and your family.##imported-begin##Tony Speaks , Karen Royster & The Thornton Family##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of Ms. Crump. No doubt in this time of need it can be difficult to cope. The bible gives assurance that death was never part of God's arrangement. Isaiah 25:8 "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces"..... This is God's promise by means of his Kingdom.##imported-begin##K.D. Smith##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy at the loss of your loved one. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with death. Please remember as you draw comfort from your precious memories there is one who also has promised to be a source of comfort to us, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Draw close to him and he will draw close to you.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
