“ I loved Pats smile, When we lived accross the hall from one another and she would have a sweet tooth, she would knock on the door and ask do I have any strawberry licorice, of course I did, and she would say thank you ,baby.

Though I have not seen her in a few years

I always had love in my heart for her.

Gordie and I were priledged to be a part of her and Jasons life

Pat was extremely proud of Jason , I remember at his graduation, oh how proud we were, Pat the proudest of all! She said " that's my Jason"

The last time I spoke with her she was watching her grandson, she told me how much she loved him and he was her heart

That was a few years ago,

I have many more memories, I wish I had more. One thing I learned from this to never loose touch with those you love, I do love you my friend ,til we meet again
