

Patricia Ann Douglas

July 4, 1954 - July 7, 2018

Patricia Ann Douglas, daughter of the late Bernard Sr. and Ila Douglas, was born July 4, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on July 7, 2018 after a brief illness.

Ann, as she was affectionately called, received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and went to further her education with the Watterson Skill Center where she received her nursing assistant certificate. She was employed by Eudowood Nursing Home and later took on private duty from which she retired.

Ann loved to crochet, put puzzles together, and cook for the family. She loved her family, always caring and encouraging everyone to stay in touch.

Ann loved the Lord and was not ashamed to give Him the Honor, Glory and Praise no matter where she was. She witnessed to everyone she came in contact with. Although she was struggling with her health she prayed for everyone, her family, her doctors, her nurses and the entire world.

Ann would always say "I'm not worried about nothing because Jesus got me." She was a member of St. John Christian Community Church.

Ann visited the staff of March's Funeral Home frequently in the evening to chat, uplift spirits and talk about Jesus.

In 1971 she met the love of her life and soul mate, Gregory Mitchell Sr. Out of their union, God blessed them with three beautiful children. She went to join her siblings that preceded her in death, Joyce, Bernard Sr. and James and her granddaughter, Ashawnta.

She leaves to cherish her memory: Gregory Mitchell Sr., Gregory Mitchell Jr., Deirdre Mitchell, and Keith Mitchell; six grandchildren, Chauntel, Ryan, Keishauna, Marcel, Layla, Ayauna; one great grandson, D'Amante; two sisters, Myra Johnson and Doris Douglas; three nieces, Chanay, Tiffany and Katrina; four nephews, Robert Jr., Edward, Ransome, and Malcolm; A very special Great Aunt whom she loved dearly that celebrated her 100th birthday on March 7, 2018, Aunt Ida McIntosh. Her special first cousins who traveled her journey with her from the beginning to the end, Sandra Brown-Dennis and Brenda Bryant, and a host of other relatives and friends.
