

Patricia Evelyn Johnson

February 13, 1936 - June 26, 2002

Patricia Evelyn Booker Thompson Johnson, daughter of Mary K. Silver and Charles Booker, was born on February 13, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on June 26, 2002 after a hard trying battle with her illness. Patricia attended and graduated from the Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in east Baltimore and pursued a career as a clerical receptionist for a major department store here in downtown Baltimore. Patricia (Pat) (Mother) was only a few names she was known as, was an inspiration and an example for all of us as a young adult and a caring friend to almost anyone in later years. Her first marriage was to Anthony Thompson Jr. (deceased) and second marriage to Clifton Johnson (deceased) and a loving friend Gene Curry (deceased). Her favorite pastime was traveling, ice skating and watching movies. She was a caring and loving person who realized in life that God does not forsake anyone with his blessings, love and forgiveness. She leaves to cherish her memory: six brothers, Leroy, Roland (known as Fat-bo), Robert, Ralph, Clifton and Earl (known as Don); and a host of nieces and nephews of which Derek, Montreasea and Tony would visit her every week. She leaves a host of cousins, other relatives and friends, including Brittney Holland who always considered her as "Mother."
