

Patricia Ann Foster

May 13, 1936 - December 28, 2012

PATRICIA FOSTER, daughter of the late John (Jack) Lewis Harper and Fannie (Elizabeth) Robertson Harper was born on May 13, 1936 in Chase City, VA. She departed this life on December 28, 2012 after a short illness.

Pat, as she was so often called, attended school in Mecklenburg County in VA. She moved away shortly after and traveled for a few years until she finally made Baltimore, MD her home.

She spent most of her working years as a homemaker and worked for ABACUS a short while in Richmond, VA, she was a barmaid at The Cotton Club in Baltimore and after working for Mercantile Bank in Baltimore, MD, she retired.

Pat loved to gather with family and friends and she enjoyed cooking and feeding everyone.

She was the mother of four. One Catherine Rogers-Bey of Baltimore preceded her in death, Beverly (Harvey, Sr.) Robinson of Chase City, VA and Jacqueline Brooks of Baltimore. Pat was married to Freddie Foster Sr. and they together had one son, Freddie Foster Jr. of Baltimore, MD.

Also, left behind to mourn her death is her devoted sister and brother-in-law,

Helen and Lewis (Lee) Atkinson of Richmond, VA, 13 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren, 3 nieces, one nephew, several cousins and a host of other relatives and friends. Pat had one sincerely devoted granddaughter, Ronnetta (Peaches) Harper of Baltimore, who was her personal caregiver since her illness began. When she closed her eyes for the final time she found a peace that would allow her to suffer no more.
