

Patricia Baker Holmes

May 27, 1950 - March 9, 2013

Patricia Baker Holmes was born May 27, 1950 to the late Richard and Ella Baker. She was a the widow of the late John Holmes. After a very brief illness, Pat was called into glory on March 9, 2013. Pat graduated from Maury High School in Norfolk, Virginia, class of 1968. During her 36 year employment with Dominion Virginia Power, Pat served in numerous career assignments. At the time of her death, Pat was assigned as a Senior Disbursement Representative.

Pat was a cheerful, easy going person who loved to travel and walk the trail at Dorey Park in Henrico, Virginia. Enjoying the latest fashions and collecting cute teddy bears were her passion. Pat's favorite quotation was "It is what it is!"

After moving to Richmond, Virginia, Pat joined Good Shepherd Baptist Church. At Good Shepherd, Pat loved hearing the choir sing and the preached Word of the Holy Gospel. Pat would sometimes say "Pastor Smith was stepping on my toes today" after a spirited church service. Pat served on the Ministry of Christian Education as an advocate for Health & Wellness, Aerobics and Dorcas Ministry. She also served on the Women's Day, Church Anniversary, and the Young Adult/Senior Citizen's Day Program committees.

Pat leaves to cherish her memory her son, Michael McClellan, one brother, Richard Baker, nephew, Andre, three grandchildren, Michaela, Lamont, and Anika; step-children; Janice Robinson, Marilyn Roane and Terry Holmes, mother-in-law, Mary Holmes, sister-in-law, Darlene Holmes, brother-in-law; Leon Holmes, and a host of other relatives and friends, including devoted friend, Wemdale B. McClellan.

“ To the family of Patricia Baker Holmes:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
