

Patricia Jackson

July 16, 1945 - May 19, 2018

Patricia Jean Jackson, 72, daughter of the late Florence and Phillip Syden Jackson Sr. began her journey on earth July 16, 1945 in Richmond, Virginia. She answered her Heavenly Fathers call and departed this life on Saturday, May 19, 2018 entering into eternal rest. She now stands behind the pearly gates of heaven looking down upon her loved ones. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lorenzo Jackson, Sr. of 19 years and a brother, Phillip Jackson, Jr.

"Pat" "Tricia" and "Jean" as she was affectionately known received her formal education in the Richmond Public School System. She furthered her education at J. Sargent Reynolds Community College with her studies in Education.

She was united in holy matrimony with Lorenzo Jackson Sr. on May 7, 1999 in James City, Virginia.

Patricia was a member of 31st Street Baptist Church and served as an usher. Patricia may not have given life to any children, however, she made life better for many children, especially her goddaughter, Tricia; her brother, Lewis; grandson, Traquan; stepson, Lorenzo Jr. and many other children.

Patricia was a happy person, friendly, giving and fun loving. She loved people, especially children and was very dedicated to her family and friends. She was vivacious, jovial and fun loving. She loved to travel, dance and listen to music. During the last few days of her life, she continually demonstrated her love and concern for family and friends by reassuring them that she was okay. The words we will always remember are " I am going to be okay."

She leaves to cherish her memory a step-son, Lorenzo Jackson Jr.; grandson, Traquan Jackson; sister, Olivia Marie Owens; goddaughter, Tricia Brown; cousins, special friends and neighbors; and a loving and devoted life partner, Anderson Jennings.

Patricia will be remembered for her gentle, kind disposition and all the love she always showed her family. May the love of God be with her eternally!
