

Patricia Ann Mack

September 15, 1955 - December 29, 2021

Patricia was born in the City of Baltimore to Raymond Holt and Emma Holt as the 5th oldest child. She graduated Frederick Douglass High School in 1973. She later married at the age of 20 welcoming her first child Kimberly Mack at the age of 22. Ten years later she welcomed Brittany Mack.

Patricia has always been a passionate and devoted worker at SECU for over 30 years. Patricia defined grace with the way she handled others, class with the way she dressed, a non-judgment aura with her conversations and advise. Patricia kept you laughing with her dry sense of humor. She enjoyed herself by watching others enjoy themselves. Patricia was quiet yet observant, a great provider, thrifty with her goals and an example of the word strength.

Patricia's favorite include 80's pop music (Michael Jackson). She loved long drives, walking on the beach, nature and sightseeing. Her favorite color was most shades of blue, she loved to ling dance, reading Danielle Steel love novels, western shows, and dainty jewelry.

In 2017 Patricia was diagnosed with lymphoma cancer. During her battles she stood tall in the storm with an uplifting spirit and the days that the winds would not blow her away, she adjusted her sail. Patricia stayed determine to keep the faith and stood strong in her bravery to conquer her illness. After two rounds of remission, her third battle became complicated. The fight against cancer didn't diminish who she was. She wasn't ashamed of a scar because it simply meant she was stronger than what tried to destroy her.

On December 29, 2021, Patricia departed this life finding the rainbow after the storm. Patricia will continue to be treasured by her daughters Kimberly Mack and Brittany Mack; 4 grandchildren Aaron Mack, Ashia Storey, Nori Summers, Cruz Summers; 2 great grandsons Amir Mack, Ayden Mack; 6 siblings Althea Colbert, Sterling Holt, Sheila Oiver, Marsha Vice, Cynthia Kensie, Steven Holt and the SECU family.
