

Patricia V McLain

June 10, 1953 - January 15, 2015

PATRICIA V. MCLIAN, was born June 10, 1953 to the late Charles McLain and Mary Harris-McLain, in Baltimore Maryland.

On January 15, 2015, God in his infinite wisdom dispatched an Angel from heaven to carry his daughter home.

Patricia was baptized at an early age and later fellowshiped with Greater Grace World Outreach.

Patricia received her education in Baltimore where she attended Western High School. She graduated in 1971, and proceeded in Nursing, specializing in Private Duty.

To know Pat was to absolutely love her. Pat was an outspoken person who always spoke what was on her mind. She loved her family, especially her grandkids.

She went above and beyond to help family, friends and neighbors. She would have you laughing so hard that you would have tears flowing from your eyes.

She was so full of life. Regardless of her challenges in life she remained strong and optimistic.

Patricia leaves a loving legacy to cherish her memory: a loving, devoted friend, Dennis; three loving children, Shawnte Lowery, Sharron Stepney, Bryan Stepney and his fiancée' Angela Carter; two brothers, the late Pervice McLain and Charles Stanley McLain; one sister, Brenda McLain- Russell; two aunts, three uncles; twelve children, Markeia, Mark Jr., Bryan Jr., Howard, Daurron, Semaj, Breona, Breon, Shaniya, Kendell, Brendan, Damonte'; two great grandsons, Trayden and Drayden; and a host of nieces , nephews and cousins. Her husband, the late Bernard Stepney preceded her in death.
