

Patricia Rhinehart

December 15, 1955 - March 18, 2023

For Tricia pain and suffering has ceased to roam. The angel of mercy has taken her home.

PATRICIA RHINEHART daughter of the late Isaiah Rhinehart and Doretha M. Wallace was born on December 15, 1955, in Baltimore City. Patricia departed this life on March 18, 2023, at the Gilchrist Center Baltimore.

Affectionately known as “Tricia” or “Pat” by family and friends, she was preceded in death by 6 siblings; 3 sisters: Barbara Wallace, Mary Wall and Linda Eads, 3 brothers: Joseph, Milton, and Aaron Wallace.

Tricia was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System graduating from Southern High School in 1974. Tricia worked several years in the retail and warehouse industry before illness forced her to leave the workforce very early in life.

Tricia found love with Charles E. Jenkins Sr. and they were married on June 22, 2007. Charles transitioned to his heavenly home in August of 2018.

Tricia journeyed many years through the wilderness of life, until she was led to accept the Lord Jesus Christ as her Savior in 2003 at the Koinonia Baptist Church where she was baptized. She later joined the First Christian Community Baptist Church in 2018, however her many health challenges prevented her from attending regularly.

When her health permitted, Tricia loved to travel, going on bus trips and family vacations. She enjoyed playing cards particularly spades with the residents at Irvington Mews Senior Building where she lived. Tricia built several long-lasting friendships there with Punita Brown, Deborah Stevenson and Wes Sturdivant. They cared for and watched out for her as though she were family. Erick Brinkley was also a long-time devoted friend who helped care for her through much of her illness.

Patricia leaves to cherish her memories: 2 sons, James L. Johnson, III and Eugene A. Taylor, Jr.; daughter-in-law, Velinda Taylor; 4 grandchildren, Rojae and Julian Johnson, Antwan Evans and Javon Edmonds; 4 great grandchildren, Zahara, Isaiah, Makaia and Adonis; one sister, Annette Moore; 3 brothers-in-law, Leon Wallace, Charles Wall & Rev. Harvey Moore. And a host of other family and friends.
