

Patrick Lonnie Minor

August 2, 1999 - April 12, 2026

Legacy of Love

Patrick Lonnie Minor was born on August 2, 1999, in Richmond, Virginia, to Lonnie Wayne Minor and Patrice Lenett Minor.

From an early age, Patrick displayed a kind and compassionate spirit. He was known for his empathy, his willingness to help others, and his service-minded approach toward family and friends. He attended church regularly with his family and accepted Christ at a young age, laying a spiritual foundation that remained with him throughout his life.

Patrick cherished time spent with loved ones. He had a naturally upbeat and cheerful personality, always quick with a laugh or a joke. Growing up, he shared a special bond with his cousins, forming a close-knit group affectionately known as “The Ruggies,” later called “The Squad.” His relationship with his sister, Lynnaya, remained strong and unwavering throughout his life. He also maintained meaningful connections with friends and extended family, leaving a lasting impression on all who knew him.

Patrick was educated in the New Kent Public Schools system and later attended Bridgewater University. He entered the workforce, where he developed a variety of skills while working at Tailgate Pros, WestRock, and Autozone Distribution. While working, Patrick built relationships that reflected his strong work ethic and character.

He had a passion for sports, especially soccer, which was his favorite. He also enjoyed cheering for his favorite football team, the New York Giants, and could often be found celebrating their victories with enthusiasm.

On April 12, 2026, at the age of 26, Patrick entered eternal rest. He was welcomed at the heavenly gates by his grandmother, Jacqueline Bobb, grandfather William Minor, uncles Stanley and William Minor, aunt Jean Bolden, and other loved ones who preceded him in passing.

Patrick, affectionately known as Buddy, Doc, and Patty, leaves to cherish his memory: his loving parents, Lonnie Wayne Minor and Patrice Lenett Minor; devoted sister, Lynnaya Patrice Minor; grandparents, Kenneth Sanders (Carolyn), Bernice Minor and F. Scott Bobb (Hawa); aunts, Kimnada Bobb-Jordan (Byron), Janet Valentine (Len), and Sarah Sanders, and uncles, Travis Bobb (Nicole), Walter Minor (Patricia), Jefferey Sanders, Kenneth Sanders, Jr., and Anthony Sanders. He is also survived by a host of cousins, great-aunts, great-uncles, and many other relatives and dear friends.

Patrick's life, though brief, was filled with love, laughter, and meaningful connections. His memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Patrick's loving spirit and joyful presence will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

“ The Hathaway family is in prayer for our friends, the Minor family, as you celebrate Patrick's life with us and his new life in heaven. In heaven, where no sickness, no sadness, and no struggle abides. We pray that you are comforted in knowing that Patrick is more alive now than in any season of his life with us. It's alright to weep, Jesus understands the preciousness of tears. And, he knows how and when to turn our tears into unspeakable joy. The word reminds us, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. (Psalm 30:5) ”
