

Patsy Clardy

September 20, 1929 - June 1, 2006

PATSY CLARDY, daughter of the late Loretta Lewis Moore and Charles W. Moore, was born on September 20, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. She went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, June 1, 2006. She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Carver High School with a certificate in Cosmetology. She worked as a cosmetologist for a number of years and also worked as a substitute teacher for the Baltimore City Public School System. On June 9, 1949, Patsy married Herbert Clardy, Sr., and from this union came one son, Herbert Clardy Jr. Patsy was a kind, warm person who looked for goodness in all whose lives she touched. Patsy will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. She was preceded in death by her mother, Loretta Lewis Moore; father, Charles W. Moore; two sisters, Dorothy Downes and Vermille Purnell; three brothers, Louis Moore, Spencer Moore, and Rudolph Moore. Patsy leaves to mourn: her son, Herbert Clardy Jr.; her ex-husband and friend, Herbert Clardy Sr.; her brother, Stanwood Moore; her sister, Brenda Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
