

Pattie Ruth Anderson

January 26, 1928 - August 22, 2015

We are gathered here today as family and friends to celebrate the life of Pattie R. Anderson, youngest child of Prosper and Ida Taylor. Pattie, affectionately known as "Granny", was born on January 26, 1928 in Warrenton, North Carolina. She was called home to glory on August 22, 2015, after a lengthy illness.

Pattie received her education at Warrenton, NC Public School System. Once she finished school, she left North Carolina by way of New York and later settled in Baltimore, Maryland, where she met the love of her life, Joseph Bailey, better known as "Pop", and together they raised five children.

She was employed as a nurse's assistant at Levindale Nursing Facility until she retired. Most people will remember Granny as being straight forward, candid, inquisitive, and curious about everything and everybody. She had a natural flair for making people laugh. She was the original "Madea". She was loved by everyone and whenever you went to visit her, she would ask, "Did you bring something for Granny?" Pattie was also known for having the best yard on Beaufort Avenue.

Pattie was preceded in death by her parents: Prosper and Ida, three brothers: Willie, Jurell, and Richard; five sisters: Alice, Irene, Flossie, Elizabeth, and Violet; two of her children, Barbara and William; and two grandchildren, Yvette and Shawn.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her loving companion: Joseph Bailey, sister: Gussie Jones, daughter, Paulette Anderson, two sons, Larry (Betty), Bryan (Michelle) Anderson, grandchildren: Renee, Sandy (James), Anthony, Patience (Francis), Shemecia, Kevin (Donna), Tony(Catanna), Ricky, Chris, Bryan, Jasmine, 21 great grandchildren, and 11 great-great grandchildren. She also leaves to cherish her memory son-in-law: Barry Shorter, life-long friend: Mrs. Hewitt, and a host of other family and friends.
