“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ *Death is such a sorrowful thing we all have to face sooner or later, but it's a hurtful thing. It shouldn" be. Very soon Almighty God promises that he is going to end this hurtful plague of death. Rev 21:3,4 says, And he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. May Jehovah keep you in his loving care, as we await the promised ressurection.##imported-begin##R

“ *My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Downey. It seem so unfair that death has the power to take away someone that we love. The Bible is comforting in this regards. At Acts 4:15, Almighty God promise a "resurrection" into a beautiful paradise. Luke 23:43. Yes, your dearly beloved one will not be forgotten. May this give you all a measure of comfort.##imported-begin##V
