

Pattie Helen Boyd

May 8, 1922 - October 7, 2002

Pattie Helen Boyd, daughter of the late Rev. James E. Cherry and Virginia Alston, was born on May 8, 1922 in North Hampton County, North Carolina. She went home to be with the Lord on Monday, October 7, 2002. Pattie was educated in the schools of North Carolina and received her high school diploma from McIver High School in Littleton, N.C. At an early age, she gave her life to Christ and united with Parker's Chapel Baptist Church in Jacksonville, North Carolina. Later, her family moved to Littleton, North Carolina and joined Oak Grove Baptist Church. After marriage, Pattie and her husband moved to Baltimore, Maryland and she joined Mount Hebron Baptist Church, where she was a very dedicated Flower Circle member. In 1943, Pattie was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Tillman Boyd. This union was blessed with two children. Pattie was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She was a wonderful homemaker and caregiver for many children. She was greatly appreciated for her many delicious meals, especially for her coconut and sweet potato pies. Pattie will always be remembered for her quiet, sweet spirit, but at the same time for being such a strong individual. Even during her illness, she never gave up. She leaves to cherish her memory; two daughters, Brenda Wilkens and Cynthia Brooks; three grandchildren, Wayne Wilkens Jr. and his wife Artis, Brian Brooks and Erica Brooks; six sisters-in-law, Earlean Cherry, Rodie Cherry, Maryline Boyd, Clementine Forsythe, all of Baltimore, Elizabeth Price and Ruth Mabry of Littleton, N.C.; nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.
