

Pattie Hawkins Tucker

October 14, 1928 - December 9, 2014

Pattie Tucker, daughter of the late Willie and Callie Hawkins was born on October 14, 1928 in Raleigh, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by her husband, Warner G. Tucker, Sr.; son, Clarence Tucker; two grandsons, Troy Tucker and Tyrice Wilson; four brothers and seven sisters. She peacefully entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, December 9, 2014.

She received her education in the Greenville County School system. When she relocated to Virginia she met the love of her life. In December of 1944, she was joined in Holy Matrimony to her husband of 65 years, Warner G. Tucker. To their union six children were born.

She was a devoted wife and mother. She chose to leave the workforce and focus on her family, which was her pride and joy. Over the years she has opened her doors to many family members and friends with love and in the true spirit of benevolence. Knowing she had helped someone in need was most rewarding to her. She personified what it means to “show love”, often giving her last to those in need.

In 1985, she joined the New Covenant Apostolic Church formerly known as the S.I. Edwards Memorial Church. She absolutely loved learning about God. It was evident she had an eagerness to learn about God’s word and stayed up in the wee hours of the night studying her bible. She wanted her life to be a perfect example of holiness.

She leaves to cherish her memory three daughters, Jerry Perkins (Robert), Earline Pitchford (Carl) and Dorothy Epperson (Arthur); two sons, Warner G. Tucker, Jr. (Ursel) and James Tucker, Sr. (Shelia); 22 grandchildren and 51 great-grandchildren, 14 great-great grandchildren; four sisters; devoted sister, Reville Taylor; one brother; goddaughter, Mary Roberts, and a host of other relatives and friends.
