

Paul G. Coleman

May 26, 1934 - June 18, 2016

PAUL GRANDVILE COLEMAN, beloved son of the late Agnes and Grandville Coleman was born on May 26, 1934. He was the fourth of eleven children.

Paul was educated in the Baltimore City Schools System. He joined the United States Marine Corps in 1953 and after serving his country honorably he went to work for, and retired from the Social Security Administration.

He joined St. Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church and became an active member. He served as an usher and he enjoyed being a member of the Knights of Columbus. St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church was the parish in which he was born, baptized, confirmed and married.

Paul was affectionately known as "Google" by his family and friends. He had a wicked sense of humor and he was inventive practical joker. He loved to go fishing and enjoyed playing cards, Paul Grandville Coleman lived his life full out and those of us left to mourn and remember him know that "he did it his way" He really loved this crazy world and added to it in his own unique way.

Preceding him in death are his two children Jazquetta and Robert Coleman his siblings, Joseph Hackett, John Gilbert and Louise Coleman and Elizabeth "Betty" Wilson.

Paul leaves to mourn him Genier “Jackie” Coleman James Anthony “Tony” Coleman, Paul Derrick Coleman and Denice Easley Also, several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He leaves his brothers and sisters: Margaret Johnson, Richard Coleman, Sr. Catherine Jean Gray, Patricia Levine, Michael Coleman, Sr. and Agnes “Rosemary” Coleman and a brother-in-law James Herman Gray, Sr. There who remember him fondly, Paul's extended family, “the spring Street Crew” and his brothers in the Knights of Columbus, and many friends will miss him.

The gift the living can give him is to remember him.
