“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from the resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for it: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hi, I know that you do not know me but I am a concerned neighbor. I want to first express my condolences for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is never easy. The Bible calls death an "enemy" at 1 Corinthians 15:26. That verse goes on to say though, that "death is to be brought to nothing." And the last book of the Bible; Revelation hold out a promise for the future that involves Paul. Notice what Revelation 21:3, 4 say: "3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Yes, without a doubt you can be confident in that promise because it comes from Almighty God. If you would like to know more about this wonderful promise please go to www.watchtower.org and accept the invitation for a free home Bible Study. This topic and many other Bible related topics can be answered for you. Once again I am sorry for your loss and please be assured that you are in my prayers. Sincerely,

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Death is something that plagues us all. May this scriptural thought at Revelation 21:3,4 comfort you and your family. It states: 'And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.' What a joyous time that will be!##imported-begin##A. Jackson##imported-end##

“ Dear Akins Family, My heartfelt sympathy to your family on the death of your loved one. We are so looking forward to the day when Rev. 21:4 comes true where there will be no more mourning nor pain nor outcry the former things have past away. This is a kingdom benifit that Jehovah God spoke of through his son Jesus Christ. May Jehovah the God of all comfort continue to be with you. ##imported-begin## R Johnson ##imported-end##
