Paul Flight was a guiding example for how we should live our lives. He was a shining light in this dark world. I had the privilege of serving with Paul on the 12-Tree Community board. He was respectful, kind, and a pillar of strength for us all. Now, Paul has taken his flight. Fly high, Paul—the beautiful memories you've left behind will light the way forward. Rest in peace. My heartfelt condolences go to his family and friends.

“ I was really saddened to learn of the passing of one my former co-worker and friend Paul Flight. May he now rest in eternal peace with the Lord. This is something Paul so richly deserve. I know how Flight for years valiantly fought the debilitating disease of MS. The courage he displayed even during some of his most painful and difficult days will always serve as an example of how to depend on heavenly faith. Again my friend, rest in peace peace, I only hope I'll see you again on the other side. Flurry
