

Paul Lee Harper

May 12, 1943 - June 22, 2003

Paul Lee Harper, Sr., son of the late David and Ruth Harper, was born on May 12, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on June 22, 2003. He received his education at Douglass High School, where he was a noted football player. He was employed with the D.C. Mass Transit and Allied Van Lines Moving Company. Paul was a people person who loved to travel. He was an outstanding cook. He had a knack for encouraging children with his homemade nursery rhymes. He was always young at heart and in his younger days, was known for being very stylish. He would often dance with his children, nieces, and nephews. Most importantly, he gave his life to Christ as an adult. Paul Sr. is survived by: his beloved wife, Marion; a former wife, Lois Geraldine; twelve children, Paul Jr., Tammy, Monica, Duane Sr., Taneshia, Tamara, Damion, Dana, Janell, Daniel, Keisha and Pauline; ten grandchildren, Ashley, Amber, Taylor, Duane Jr., Jabria, Quianna, Lindsey, Kali, Eric Jr. and Averic; two brothers, David and Claude; three sons-in-law, Kenneth, Cliff and Eric Sr., one brother-in-law, John Alston (husband of the late Annie Ruth); and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
