

Paul R. Mears Sr.

September 2, 1945 - December 21, 2017

Paul Randolph Mears, Sr., son of the late George and Sarah Baldwin was born on September 2, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. He transitioned from this life on December 21, 2017 after triple bypass heart surgery at Johns Hopkins Hospital on November 5, 2017.

He received his primary education at William S. Baer School located on Warwick Ave. in West Baltimore. He completed his secondary education from Gompers Vocational School located on North ave. and Broadway in East Baltimore. He was employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital in the Pathology department during and after completion of high school for a large part of his working years. As a senior, to keep himself active, he took on jobs at BWI airport and FedEx.

Paul prayed a prayer of repentance and asked Jesus to come into his heart at an early age in Jenkins Bridge, VA. When he moved to East Baltimore with his parents he joined Temple Baptist Church located on Wolfe Street. He married Delores Bolling of Goochland, Va and of this marriage two children were born, Paul Randolph Jr. and Pamela Annette.

Paul had a very friendly outgoing personality and no one was a stranger in his presence as he was known to remind everyone. Always known in the communities in which he lived as a master of many trades. He could be found fixing cars electronic gadgets, and engineering any other thing he could get his hands on if the need was there. He continued these acts of kindness in Turners Station where he served during activities such as "Dumpster Clean Up Day" and cutting the grass of many elders in the community. Last but not least, in his later years paul served as the honorary traffic director in Turners Station at the intersection of Main Street and Avon Beach Road.

He leaves to cherish his memory: son, Paul R. Mears Jr.; daughter, Pamela (Shawn) A. Smith; former wife, Delores Mears; sister, Clara Baugh; Cousin-Sister-Mother, Courtney Speed; granddaughter, Rana Mears; grandson, Donte Mears; granddaughter, Deja Mears; granddaughter, Kayla Smith; grandson, Desmend Smith; two great grandsons, Jourdyn and Tayvaree, and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
