

Paul L. Veniey

July 28, 1920 - October 9, 2013

PAUL L. VENIEY was a loving and devoted father, grandfather, brother and friend. He was the son of the late Richard Veniey and Eva Barber. He peacefully fell asleep on October 9, 2013.

Paul was born on July 28, 1920. He attended Baltimore Academy. Paul continued his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Paul retired from the Social Security Administration after thirty years of faithful service. He continued his career as an accountant for Baltimore City and retired again at the age of eighty-five.

Paul was baptized by Elder Henry Fordham. He loved the Lord and came to church regularly until his illness would not allow him to. Paul supported Baltimore Junior Academy and believed in "Christian Education". Paul was a Deacon, a member of the Adventist Men, and he regularly visited the sick and shut-in members with Elder Gregory Stackhouse, Elder Howard Wilson and the late Brother Weldon Waters.

He met and married the last love of his life, Patricia Booker, at Berea Temple Seventh-Day Adventist Church. They were married for twenty-two years. Paul always made sure Patricia had everything she ever needed or wanted. To see Paul you would think of Joseph Bank Clothier. He was always dressed up.

Paul was preceded in death by his brothers James Veniey, John Veniey and William Barber.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Patricia Veniey; daughter, Rosalind Alexander; three sons, Paul Veniey Jr., Terry Forbes and Wayne Forbes; sister, Viola Stoakley; four sisters-in-law, Tara Booker, Alfreda Veniey, Nora Barber and Nancy Weaver; three brothers-in-law, Charles Booker, Earl Booker and Larry Booker; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, other family members and friends.

Hi Daddy, it's me your daughter,Rosalind. You are always in my heart everyday.There is not a day that goes by that I don't honor you and say thank you for all the wonderful life lessons that you gave me unconditionally. You will always be my hero and I will always be daddy's little girl. We will dance again together one day, but give me another plus 40 years. Always your faithful daughter,Rosalind. There is no one who could say me name like you. Your spirit shines bright in my heart every day of my life and will continue for now and evermore.

“ *To the family of Paul L. Veniey:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ In these troubled times, we all face storms. There are economic hardships, depression, failing health, the loss of a loved one in death - such tempests effects us all at one time or another, and we cannot avoid them. It certainly does move us to see persons who appear quite frail show surprising strength, enduring such onslaughts. Often faith is a key (James 1:3) Another key is hope (1Thessalonians 4:13), there is the hope of the resurrection (James 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15). This knowledge gives us hope, that hope, in turn, gradually softens grief. This is what helps us to endure. You can find more encouraging Scriptures at www.jw.org. May God continue to comfort your family in this stressful time of need.
