

Paul W. Hebron

August 28, 1917 - August 1, 2004

Paul William Mahlon Hebron, son of the late William M. and Carrie Hebron, was born on August 28, 1917 in Catonsville, Maryland. He departed this life on August 1, 2004 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Baltimore County, inducted into the United States Navy from 1944-1946, and received an Honorable Discharge. Baltimore Gas and Electric employed him for several years. Later, he decided to start his own business. He became a licensed general contractor. He shared his talent with his three sons. They all had the opportunity of working with him occasionally. He enjoyed his work and took great pride in the finished product. Pop-Pop would say at times, "A faint heart never won a lady," and "A new broom sweeps clean, but an old broom will find the dust." Paul married the late Virginia Mae Woodyard on June 8, 1940. Out of this union seven children were born, Joyce Wilson, Mahalon Hebron, (Fonda Huges, who preceded him in death), Paula Hebron, Larry Hebron, Adele Martin, and Norman Hebron. In 1984 he married the late Elizabeth F. Barnes. They had no biological children. Paul enjoyed football, baseball and boating. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He will always be remembered for many things, especially the work he had done as a Contractor. He leaves to cherish his memory: three sons, Mahalon, Larry and Norman Hebron; three daughters, Joyce Wilson, Paula Hebron, Adele Martin; nineteen grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends, including family and friends in Dorsey, Maryland and Catonsville, Maryland.
