

Paul Henry Wilborn

January 14, 1935 - January 25, 2020

On Saturday, January 25, 2020, God, in his infinite wisdom, called Paul Henry Wilborn into eternal life.

Paul was born in Halifax County, Virginia on January 14, 1935 to the late Rev. William H. and Mary Coleman Wilborn. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Paula Wilborn and five of his eight siblings.

Paul accepted Christ at an early age. During his Christian journey, he was a member of Bethel Grove Baptist Church, Clover, Va. and Moore Street Missionary Baptist Church, Richmond, Va., where he sang in the Male Chorus. He received his education in the Halifax County school system. Afterwards, he served honorably in the United States Army. In his later years, he proudly wore Army fatigues daily.

Paul was united in marriage to Eliza Ellen Lewis in 1956. They were married for 64 years and blessed with one daughter. He retired from Reynolds Metals Company/Alcoa as a metallurgist.

Paul loved his family and touched the hearts and lives of many. He was a fun loving person who enjoyed life. He also enjoyed playing cards, entertaining family and friends, and being the life of the party. He was known for his cookouts and his grill was always ready at a moment's notice. The joys of his life were taking care of his family, singing in the church choir and serving the Lord, and spending time with his friends.

Paul leaves to cherish his memory: a devoted wife, Eliza Ellen Wilborn; two granddaughters, Candace and Kristina Wilborn; two great grandsons, Greyson Wilborn and Seven Wilborn; two sisters, Clara Chambers of Bronx, NY and Louise Randolph (James) of Los Angeles, CA; one aunt, Easter Wilborn; several nieces and nephews, and a host of cousins and friends.

Husband, Father, Grandfather, Brother, and Friend - you will be dearly missed...
