

Paula Jeanette Hardy

September 14, 1964 - January 1, 2021

Paula Jannette Hardy, the youngest daughter of James R and Loris T. Hardy was born on September 14, 1964 in Neuenburg, Germany. On January 01, 2021, The Lord sent his angel to call her home.

Paula received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and was a proud Graduate of Forest Park Senior High in 1982.

Paula was affectionately known as Poochie to family and friends growing up. She was the queen of many trades, styling hair and making clothes. She even made her own prom dress.

Paula was a woman of many words, making friends everywhere she went. She was always known for saying the Phrase "Baby..." before or after all her statements. She had a love for traveling, shopping and always hosted a table at a Flea Market to sell her creations.

Paula loved the Lord and was a faithful member of Sweet Hope Freewill Baptist Church for years.

She leaves fond memories with her 3 loving children: Robert T. Handy, Kahlil Banks and Quiana Banks; parents, James Sr. and Loris Hardy; three sisters, Anita, Wanda and Janet; two brothers, Carlos and James Jr. (Tamika); five nieces; six nephews; five great-nieces; three great-nephews; special friends, Mother Brooks and Kim Bruton; as well as a host of cousins, relatives and friends.
