“ Kenny, Kendra and Kenny, We know that you are overwhelmed with sorrow, however, our prayer is that you will soon be able to take comfort in knowing that weeping may endure for a night (or a season) but joy does come. It comes as you consider Paulette's love for the Lord and her love for each of you. Our prayer for each of you is for God's amazing grace and everlasting mercy to comfort and give you peace, as you await your joy and then, may He continually richly bless your lives forevermore. “ To the family, may God comfort you in your pain and sorrow. To the husband of Paulette, I offer my deepest sympathy on the loss of your partner and soul mate, and to her precious children I pray so hard for you, and i want you to know that one day you will see your mommy again. This is so hard for you all to bear, but know that we have a loving heavenly father who cares so much for us, and promises to end all sickness and death in the very near future. A wonderful time is just ahead of us; a time when the dead will wake up from the sleep of death, and sickness, violence, and death will be no more. Rev 21:3-5. Jesus has been given all authority to ressurect the dead, and one day they will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:25-29. May Jehovah GOD wrap his loving arms around you, and keep you in his loving care, and may your cherished memories of Paulette help you to go on until that wonderful day when you see her again. Please be comforted.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Pauliette what a beautiful young lady. You don't know me but I want to express my deep est condolences to your family. Paulette really had a zest for life, and while it is sad and painful to hear of the death of a loved one. To reflect on the joys brought on by her life is comforting. However, something else that brings comfort are the promises Jehovah God has made to us by means of his written word. For example the Book of Acts 24:15 Paul, stated that "there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. That mean that we will see them again in the flesh. They will be healthy, youthful and full of vital energy. How does that sound to you? Other scriptures to consider are John 5:28,29, Psalm 37:9,10,29, as well as Revelation 21:3,4 are all wonderful promises made by Jehovah God. In your spare time enjoy reading them for yourself. Thanks for allowing me to send you this message. Agape, Marilyn###imported-begin###Marilyn Williams###imported-end##

“ I'm so sorry Paulette's life was cut short. She sounds like a wonderful person. Death is something we will never get use to, no matter what race or religion we are. We all grieve and mourn for our dead love one. So then, is death really the end? No! Almighty God's promise at 1 Corinthians 15:26; 'as the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.' We have a resurrection hope stated at Acts 24:15; 'there will be a resurrection of the righteous, and the unrighteous.' But in order for us to benefit from these promises, we have to take in accurate knowledge of Jehovah and Jesus Christ mentioned at John 17:3. My deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##
