“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ Joy:

I know you're in a better place looking down on us. God's purpose for your life here on earth with us has been fulfilled and now you're finally home! Godspeed, until we meet again on that beautiful morn....."And I will rise when he calls my name, no more sorrow, no more pain. I will rise on eagle's wings, before my God, fall on my knees and rise. I will rise.... Chris Tomlin.

“ *Although you were the youngest of the Knight siblings, you were the shining star in the family. May your star continue to shine brightly from heaven and be a guide to your family, your friends, and your community. You were indeed a true JOY!
You will remain forever in our hearts.

“ It's hard at this time to say goodbye to one as caring and loved as you. However it's joyful to know we're not saying goodbye, it's just "Tatta" because I know we shall meet again in that beautiful land of rest. And most of all you would give anything down here see a picture of your mother. Well you don't have to wonder any more; you met her now 1st. Corinthians 13:12. Yes God never make a mistake we were praying for healing for you, but I don't want anyone to say God did not answer our prayers. He healed you by taking you home to rest. You see at your very young age of 51 your work down hear was complete so He called you home to be with Him. So you can say like the Apostle Paul " I fought a good fight, I have finished my course I have kept the faith". 2nd Timothy 4:7. See you in the morning "Baby girl" !!!!.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God assures us that our dear dead loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. (John 5:28,29) The Bible also assures us: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. Death was never part of our Heavenly Father’s original purpose for mankind. In fact, in His word the Bible He calls it an enemy (1Cor. 15:26) which He promises in the very near future to do away with (Rev. 21:4,5) At that time tragedies and accidents will be a thing of the past, no one will ever get sick (Isaiah 33:24) and there will be a reuniting, a bringing back to life instead of losing (John 5:28,29) Please allow these words to be of comfort to you and give you hope. (2Cor. 1:3,4)
