

Paulette Velma White

October 17, 1960 - January 25, 2017

Paulette V. White was born on October 17, 1960 to the late Cleopatra Crump and Vernon Buster White, Sr. She departed this life from heart failure on Wednesday, January 25, 2017 in Baltimore, Maryland and went home to be with the Lord.

Paulette was born with cerebral palsy and severe mental retardation. She did not allow either to stop her from enjoying life. Paulette attended and graduated from a Baltimore City special education school. After school, she would walk around her East Baltimore neighborhood talking to her neighbors.

Paulette loved many things, such as Pepsi, pork yam, music, pocketbooks and playing with baby dolls. Her favorite television show was The Price is Right. She loved to hear the announcer say, "Come on Down". She always said things three times. I guess she wanted to make sure you understood what she said. As she got older, her conditions got worse. She became dependent on family and aides to help her with all her daily living needs.

Paulette gave her life to Christ and was baptized at Mount Carmel in 2016.

Preceding her in death are her three brothers, Gary, Larry and Vernon and two sisters, Patricia and Valerie. She leaves to cherish her memory: two brothers, Gregory West and Herbert White ;sister, Harriet West; nephews, nieces and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *Hello I want to give the family my deepest condolences and to also let you know that the last enemy death will be no more as found in God's word the Bible in Rev 21:4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
I hope that this gives you comfort*

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your loved one . How comforting to know that Almighty God has not only the power but the desire to reunite us with our loved ones by means of the resurrection hope Jesus spoke of in the Bible at John 5 : 21,28,29 when both sickness and death will be no more as promised in Revelation 21 : 3-5

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Cherish the fond memories of your dear loved one. Have faith in the Kingdom Jesus taught his early followers to pray for at Matthew 6:9. This Kingdom will do away with our enemy, death, once and for all. Then we can look forward to another important action, the resurrection of millions of dead loved ones who have the prospect of growing to perfection under God's Messianic King. What great family reunions lay ahead. Until then let us run this race for life with endurance.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
