

Paulette D. Woodson

August 13, 1952 - September 28, 2018

Paulette Diane Woodson, was born to Louis Eugene Woodson and Doris Laverne Woodson, on August 13, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life to be with the Lord on September 28, 2018 after a lengthy illness.

Paulette received her education in the Baltimore City School System. In 1973, Paulette began working at Raytheon (a state-of-the-art electronics, mission Systems Company) in Lansdowne, Maryland. She had other jobs, before landing a prestigious position at the Bon Secours Health System in Marriottsville, Maryland where she was employed until the time of her passing. At an early age, Paulette gave her life to the Lord, and continued to serve the Lord until her transition. She was a proud member of Shiloh C. C. Church in Baltimore, Pastor Jimmy Baldwin, and later, Providence Baptist Church in Baltimore, Rev. Marcus G. Wood.

Paulette was a very loving, active and outgoing person, and loved her family dearly. She loved all of her family, but there was one Aunt in which she affectionately called her Angel, and that was her Aunt Hilda Corbin whom proceeded her in death. Of the many gifts given to her by God, one of them was singing. She had the voice of a mocking bird, and used her voice in so many ways. She first used her high soprano voice with her well known family group "The Woodson Specials Gospel Singers", as she also recorded with them. She performed solos in plays such as "What's in your closet fashion show", "The Gospel Music in me", and many other gospel plays that were written and directed by her talented brother, Benjamin Woodson. Paulette sang in various choirs with well-known musicians such as Mr. William Sydnor, Gary Hunt and Bruce Henderson. She loved playing the piano from time to time, and did so at various churches. Paulette always sponsored birthday celebration gatherings on the last Saturday in September for all family members and friends. She was also a well know seamstress who made all kinds of uniforms for any occasion. Paulette made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by all who knew her. Her personal slogan was "I'm here for you".

Paulette was preceded in death by: her father, Bishop Louis Eugene Woodson, and her mother, Doris Laverne Woodson.

She leaves to mourn: Her son, Bryan Eugene Woodson, Three brothers, Benjamin Woodson, Rev. Joseph Woodson and David Woodson. Two sisters, Rev. Hilda Neal, and Laverne Pope. One brother-in-law, Steadman Pope, Two Sister-in-laws, Rev. Daisy Woodson and Minister Sharon Woodson, a very loving and true friend Amanda Garrett, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, and a host of other relatives and friends
