“ Dear Family and Friends, Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of Mrs. Pauline Abrons. First Corinthians 15:26 informs us that our "enemy death" will one day be "destroyed". There is much hope for our dead loved ones because Almighty God has the hope of a resurrection written down for us many times in His Word the Bible. One such comforting passages is Acts 24:15. That verse declares-"...there is going to be a resurrection.." May you find much comfort and strength from family, friends and these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Abrons, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, even when that one has lived a long life by our standards. Be assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the Abrons Family, Losing a loved one to death is truly a sorrowful thing. Because of our foreparents Adam and Eve, we all are subject to sin and death (Romans 5:12). However, God, by means of his son, Jesus Christ, has provided the means for everlasting life (John 3:16).##imported-begin##M. Douglas##imported-end##

“ To the Abrons Family, Please accept my sincere condolences. During this difficult time, it may be hard to focus on the wonderful resurrection hope that Jesus holds out for us but it's good to meditate on an encouraging scripture such as John 5: 28,29. It says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Remembering the wonderful Christian hope can sustain you in times of sadness.##imported-begin##A Robinson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Abrons Family, I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. Death is such a sad thing and it is not prejudice. But the Holy Scriptures gives us hope. First, it let's us know the condition of the dead. At Ecclesiastes 9:5 tells us "for the living are conscious that they will die, but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all, neither do they anymore have wages, because the remembrance of them has been forgotten". Isn't comforting to know that they are not suffering anymore. The Scriptures also speak of a time when Jesus will call them out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28 "Do not marvel at this, becuae the hour is coming which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice." I hope this Bible base message will bring you comfort. “ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn of the death of Pauline. I’m sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

Also there is the promise found at Rev. 21:3,4 that we will receive our dead loved ones back in the resurrection, to a cleansed Paradise earth where death will be no more! If you would like to know more about what the Bible Really Teaches about these wonderful promises, please speak to Jehovah's Witnesses when they come to your door.##imported-begin##LAlston##imported-end##

“ To The Abrons Family: Even though it has been several years,the memories of our loved ones never fade away.May this thought from God's word continue to soothe your heart and mind as you continue to go about your daily lives. That thought is found at Philippians 4:7 which states:And the peace of God that excels all thought will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus.##imported-begin##D.
