

Pauline Brown

April 20, 1931 - May 15, 2019

PAULINE BOYD BROWN, daughter of the late Jim and Sarah Boyd, was born on April 20, 1931 in Mecklenburg County, Virginia. She surrendered her earthly body unto her her Maker and Creator on May 15, 2019 at the age of 88 years old. Pauline first began her religion at an early age and was baptized at Good Hope Baptist Church in Virginia.

Pauline, affectionately called 'Polly', was raised in Blackridge, Virginia along with her five siblings Oliver, Ethel, Arthur, Ellen (all preceded her in death) and her twin brother (Sandy Paul). She received her education at Good Hope School in Blackridge, Virginia where she met and later married her childhood sweetheart (Arthur James Brown). From this union they were blessed with two children. Their union lasted for 43 years until Arthur was called to Eternal Rest in 1992.

Due to the lack of good employment in the south, they relocated to Baltimore, Maryland with their family. Upon gaining meaningful employment, she worked various jobs to assist in providing for her family. Her final employment before retirement was as a school bus aide. As an aide, she felt blessed to be able to give a small hand in touching the lives of the future generations.

Some of Pauline's life highlights were traveling, family socials, annual visits to her birth home, reminiscing, supporting, and sharing time with her siblings, eating caring for her nieces, nephews, and adopted others, shopping, and going to Atlantic City. Her greatest highlight was spending quality time with her grandchildren, especially Avin Duncan "Toe-Joe" who preceded her in death in 2015.

She leaves to embrace her memory; her children, Ethel Ruth Brown-Hughes (John-deceased) and William James (Vanessa); three grandchildren, Tia, Miah, and William Jr; two great-grandchildren, Chole and Joshua; her twin brother Sandy Paul; three sisters-in-law, Maryann, Christine (John) and Gladys ; to brothers-in-law, Haywood (Lena) and Freeman; a long time and faithful friend Robert Gayle; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and beloved friends.
