

Pauline C. Hargrove

August 3, 1914 - October 20, 2004

Pauline Cecilia Hargrove, daughter of the late William A. and Rebecca Davis Nicholas, was born August 3, 1914 in Richmond, Virginia. She transitioned into her new life on Wednesday, October 20, 2004 after a lengthy illness at the Frankford Nursing Home. Pauline was baptized at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church and educated at Van de Byver Catholic School where she was a member of the girl's basketball team. At St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, she was a member of the Ladies Sodality and the Senior Latin Choir. After the completion of her schooling Pauline met and was united to Samuel A. Hargrove. From that union, they were blessed with seven children. Both Samuel A. Hargrove, Sr. and Samuel A. Hargrove, Jr. preceded her in death. Pauline in her younger years did domestic work and loved to sew. She made all of her children's clothes. In June 1955 she moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she worked as a seamstress for Maryland Clothier Company where she made the uniforms for the police and firemen throughout the state of Maryland. She retired from this company. Also that year she joined St. Francis Xavier Roman Catholic Church. Pauline was an original member of the Gospel Choir and the Knights of Peter Claver Ladies Auxiliary, Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange. Court 323. She was also a member of the Golden Dome Club at St. Bernardine's Roman Catholic Church on Edmondson Avenue and was a member of the St. Francis Xavier Ministry of Praise. For many years, Pauline made the Baptismal Clothes for the church and made gowns for the choir. Pauline loved to cook. Every Sunday she made hot rolls and a three layer chocolate cake from scratch. Pauline was a devoted servant of Christ. Throughout her illness, she bore her pain with silent strength, courage, reserved dignity and regal beauty. With a twinkle in her eye, the fullness of love in her heart and her strong will, she touched many lives including those she helped raise. Pauline was an outspoken, fun loving individual and loved to play poke no. She leaves to cherish her memory: seven children, Blanche M. Anderson, William J. Hargrove, Rebecca L. Ramsey, Theresa R. baker, Pauline C. Hargrove (Polly), Mary E. Cobb and Pamela A. Nicholas; twenty-four grandchildren, twenty-six great grandchildren, and seventeen great-great grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Cassie Nicholas; one brother-in-law, John H. Taylor; one devoted son-in-law, Malcolm Ramsey; and a host of nieces, nephews, and countless other relations and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Pauline, I send my condolences in your time of grieving. Death is something that affects us all. But it is comforting to know that Jehovah will do away with death forever at Rev. 21:3,4. May this scripture be used as a source of encouragement during your time of grief.##imported-begin##Ms. McNeil##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
